

Minutes from the 5th Sheffield Anarchist Feminist meeting, August 31st

- Film showing: Possibly the 3rd week of term, as part of Cinema Syndicate. We'll check we can do this at the next Cinema Syndicate meeting. Possible films include Lilya 4-ever, Nude Live Girls Unite, Itty Bitty Titty Committee, and Fucking Sheffield (about sex work in Sheffield).
- Free School Workshop: The focus of our Anarchist Feminist workshop will be a discussion of the subject area, rather than a "talk", with a view to writing the leaflet later on. Other possibilities include a discussion of gender roles within meetings and activist groups, with small groups looking at hypothetical scenarios, a film showing, and a self-defence workshop.
- Feminist Poster Project: We can use and contribute to this great resource for feminist graphics for posters, stickers and flyers. Check it out here: <http://feministposterproject.wordpress.com/>
- Craft session! We've booked the upstairs room in the Rutland Arms for a session thinking about and producing posters and stickers, from 7pm on Wednesday 15th Sept. Bring drawing stuff and/or laptops, and lots of ideas.
- Writing collective: If you're interested in writing articles, haikus or anything else with an anarchist-feminist bent, we'll compile a zine or other collection of writings at some point. Send them on the email list, bring them to a meeting or upload them to the website.
- Evan Greer, a queer feminist musician and community organiser will be in the UK in October. We'll look into putting on a gig and/or workshop when we know the exact dates he'll be in Sheffield.
- Next Meeting: Wednesday 22nd Sept. 7pm upstairs in Rutland Arms.
